Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Sunday 26 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A wet night ahead, rain clearing later Monday morning.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain will reach the west later this evening, and then gradually spread eastwards to most other areas overnight. Some heavy rain likely at times especially for Moray. Far east may stay dry until dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
Cloud and rain gradually clearing away east through the morning. Brightening up and becoming drier in the afternoon with the odd blustery shower. Feeling fresher than of late. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Dry morning on Tuesday, chance of some rain later. Early rain in the east on Wednesday, otherwise dry. Further rain early on Thursday, then dry.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.